

Move Over

Red Shahan

So this is my pardon
Leaving you alone
And these are my reasons
I never came home

So this is my answer, baby
For all you are, woman
And all that you're not

You take me for a fool
Mirror's right there
You want me to lose well
To see if they care

So this is my answer, baby
For all you are, woman
And all that you're not

So move over, baby
I'm not a-missing you none
So move over, darling
And I've moved out of town
So move over, baby
Well I'm over and out
I ain't a-missing you none

Your heart's no good
And everything you think is bad
You want me to lose well
To see if they care

So this is my answer, baby
For all you are, woman
And all that you're not

So move over, baby
I'm not a-missing you none
So move over, darling
And I've moved out of town
So move over, baby
Well I'm over and out
I ain't a-missing you none

So move over, baby
I'm not a-missing you none
