

The Drowning Incident

Red Sun Rising

Safe on this ship I'd be a fool I'd leave it
Intrigued by what I might find
Swim away with ambitions as baggage
Might be enough to drag me down

My head isn't empty but wasted
I'm plagued by the good that I've found
My head is swimming infested waters
Is it better to drown

Halfway to where I'm going
Can't see where I've come from anymore
If this is a mistake that I'm making
I hope I figure it out before it drags me down

My head isn't empty but wasted
I'm plagued by the good that I've found
My head is swimming infested waters
Is it better to drown
Is it better to drown

My head isn't empty but wasted
I'm plagued by the good that I've found

My head isn't empty but wasted
I'm plagued by the good that I've found
My head is swimming infested waters
Is it better to drown, drown

My head isn't empty but wasted
And I'm saved by the good that I've found
My head is swimming infested waters
Is it better to drown, drown
