

????? (First Time)

Red Velvet

I really don't know, I'm nervous like this
Whitening the black sky
It's the first time dawn has broken
Let's walk as we hold hands
Under the starry sky
No matter how I look at it, it's lacking

When you open your eyes in the morning, do you think of me?
When you see something nice, do I come up in your mind?
Do you suddenly smile to yourself like me

Please tell me, is this your first time?
You've fallen as much as I have, right?
I want to know it all
If my heart has
Fallen deeper than yours, like an idiot

I learn everyday, bit by bit
We learn more about each other
And our happiness grows longer
Oh, is it love?
When you talk to me as you look into my eyes
I become too honest
I become a child

I become prettier, everyday is new
I don't think I've ever been this way
Is your everyday like this too?

Please tell me, is this your first time?
You've fallen as much as I have, right?
I want to know it all
If my heart has
Fallen deeper than yours, like an idiot

We're one, eventually
Somehow, in someway
I hope that it's your first, then I hope it's your last
We can't become complete, like halves
We fill each other, completely

Please tell me, is this your first time?
You've fallen as much as I have, right?
I want to know it all
If my heart has
Fallen deeper than yours, like an idiot

Today I realised how much
I really love you for the First Time
