It just comes automatic

How, how do you like this to be?
Natural and automatic for ya

I love the way you wrap around my heart, filling me up
I didn't know before, it just comes automatic
My senses move at the smallest body movements
It just comes so natural It just comes Automatic

I've waited for these fantasies every day
My heart is breathing toward you
The momentarily scattering sounds reach you
Telling you all the truths about my love

Warm velvet skin, lips with a soft light on them
Eyes that are wet like rain, it's all beautiful

I love the way you wrap around my heart, filling me up
I didn't know before, it just comes automatic
My senses move at the smallest body movements
It just comes so natural, it just comes automatic

The sugar rush comes over me at once
I'm so naturally stopped in front of you
I close my eyes and open them again
But I can't wake up from this deep dream

Warm velvet skin, lips with a soft light on them
Eyes that are wet like rain, it's all beautiful

Your warm hands, your soft smile
In your world, it's all beautiful

I love the way you wrap around my heart, filling me up
I didn't know before, it just comes automatic
My senses move at the smallest body movements
It just comes so natural, it just comes automatic

I'm being pulled by you, it's automatic
This feeling, just as it is, just hold on

I love the way, I'm matching my footsteps to yours
It's already decided, it just comes automatic
I want to continue to stay in the same place as you
It just comes so natural, it just comes automatic

It just comes automatic
