Hey ey
Hey hey yeah yeah

My heart still wants more
But that sunlight is setting
I wanna tell you more about my honest feelings
I wanna get closer to you

What kind of a person was I before I knew you
What kind of books I was really into
All the moments that made
My heart beat, I wanna tell you

It might be a Pandora's box
It's a little hard to hear, the talking
The sound of your heart that is hidden
Behind that mysterious smile is talking all night

A campfire under the night sky
I'm leaning on your shoulder
A campfire for us two
The night filled with fire
Your hands touch my slightly red cheeks

I hear the fire crackling, I smell the wood burning
Remember the campfire
Reflecting in my eyes tonight

What more is needed?
This is our own game of Truth or Dare
No lies allowed, never
What's the use of hiding?

What is your favorite season?
What is your #1 treasure in your room?
Have you ever imagined me
Out in your mind?

My heart melts at your sweet voice
Like marshmallows in cocoa
The hot flames dance softly
And I'm showing my heart for you

A campfire under the night sky
I'm leaning on your shoulder
A campfire for us two
The night filled with fire
Your hands touch my slightly red cheeks
I hear the fire crackling, I smell the wood burning
Remember the campfire
Reflecting in my eyes tonight

More than a popular movie, more than a pretty view
I want to hear your story
Like the stars in the sky, whether it's farther or closer
You shine in my eyes

Come on, come on
Happy you around
Hey uh-huh

Yeah, let me hear it one time
Your inner feelings that no one has heard about

A campfire under the night sky
I'm leaning on your shoulder
A campfire for us two
The night filled with fire
Your hands touch my slightly red cheeks
I hear the fire crackling, I smell the wood burning
Remember the campfire
Reflecting in my eyes tonight

A campfire under the night sky
A campfire for us two
Your hands touch my slightly red cheeks
I hear the fire crackling, I smell the wood burning
A very special campfire
Reflecting in my eyes tonight
A campfire under the night sky
