Can I get your number?

Who was that person who looked at you and smiled?
There are no secrets,
We're best friends, I'm the same
These days, new faces
Are making my heart flutter
They're spinning around our world

All my good friends know
Whether or not I'm being honest right now
1, 2, 3 tell me your heart
Shh, not here
Meet me in the Lady's Room

Let's pop the champagne and make it rain
We like to party tonight
It's even better because we're together (How we do)
Let's go together, there's so much to talk about
We like to party tonight
Ooh ooh ooh ooh

Room! Lady's, Room! Lady's
Oh am I okay right now?
Room! Lady's, Room! Lady's
I think I like him

Let's talk slowly, the night is still young
No one can rush us,
It's just us here
I'll comb my hair, slightly color my lips
And put on some orange scent, what more is needed?
I know what you're worried about these days
Because we're always sharing

Tonight, hurry up, he's here
Follow me, follow me, follow me
Meet me in the Lady's Room

Everyone's curious baby
About what we always talk about in there
Ha I know you wanna know baby
My interest is actually in you
Where are we going?
The night is growing deeper but it's not over yet
Because my eyes are still chasing after you
I just wanna talk with you babe
Oh whoa ooh ooh
