When you keep looking at me Baby baby
It's awkward, why is it like this I put my head down but even the tip of your toes make my heart beat
It's beating, beating, beating again

I see your feet coming towards me
Step by step, closer to me
My feelings are growing and I can't hide it anymore
Come on come on come on

When I lift my head and look at you
You softly kiss me on the cheeks
Would you Would you Would you
"Oh yes I do"
Like a moment out of a fable
That I wanted by myself for a long time
(Would you Would you)
I pray that it will happen today

One step, two step, my heart is jumping
I think our feet are going to touch
What should I do
My head goes blank

Playfully
I step back and stop
You come, come, come to me

The footsteps of my heart grow louder
I think you might hear them
Should I come to you one step closer first?
Come on come on come on

When I lift my head and look at you
You softly kiss me on the cheeks
Would you Would you Would you
"Oh yes I do"
Like a moment out of a fable
That I wanted by myself for a long time
(Would you Would you)
I pray that it will happen today

Would you Would you boy
Would you Would you boy
Would you be mine
Would you Would you boy
Please don't hesitate Oh my love

Suddenly you lower your head towards me
And you softly kiss me on the cheeks

When I lift up my head surprised and look at you
Will you hug me without a word
Would you Would you Would you

"Oh yes I do" (Cozy in your arms)
My heart is ticklish
One foot is flying to the sky
(Would you Would you)
I think my heart will follow it to the sky too

A secret I hid shyly in my heart
I pray that it will happen today
