

Glass House

Red Wanting Blue

I will never leave you
You have become so much a part of me
Patchwork memory
We're now both clawed and sealed
I will be your dumb-dumb
You will be my fatcat under the same roof
Always on attack
In a jungle habitat
Animal hearts, wild minds
We are human beings
Wild minds, we are human beings

We're all these things, all these beasts
The great lion and the church mouse
Living together inside our glass house, oh yeah
The great lion and the church mouse
Living together inside our glass house
We are the lion and the church mouse
Living inside our glass house
