

Hello

Red Wanting Blue

Ice comes to mind
When I think about your heart
And I think about the way you steal away my emotions
And I'd like to make it clear to say
Hello

Ice comes to mind
When I think about your heart
And I think about the way you steal away my emotions
And I'd like to make it clear to say
Hello

Too late for tomorrow
Yesterday's gone
Where's today
Life seems to be surrounded in this sorrow
Can't we bring it back just one more day
Hello

Can you feel it, can you feel it
Running through your mind
Can you feel it, can you feel it
Running through your mind
And now
You're truely free
And now
You're truely free
And now
You're truely free
And now
You're truel free
Where the stars give their regards
It is there
It is there
It is there
That I love you
