Red Wanting Blue

I said, I said have you heard the one.
about the man?
Well listen
please
to me
cause I wanna go planet hoppin'
dance among the stars
which planet's got the best bars take a look around
see what has been found what's the best drink on mars and what about Venus?
Oh man, kickin' way back in '55
and what about Pluto?
I hear he's man's best friend.
he likes to end his days with ice caked on your heart tearin' me apart
children
Dive in.

Can't you taste it? On your skin?
that villain called sin kick back the slow groove/ we find our way back to the slow groove
keep it quiet, keep it real quiet we don't wanna wake the man upstairs, don't wanna wake
him
f**k the man upstairs I'm comin' down for you . I'm coming a little unnecessary
the path less travelled find yourself in a little bit of wilderness Yeah, and I'm seeing all the trees all the ivy
my very own mountain range ponder deeply deranged
dive
taste
sin
kick back
groove to the improv
