Your Alibi

Red Wanting Blue

Sunday morning I arrive
Through the dark and night's disguise
Sunday morning
Baby, I'm your alibi

Dream got out of bed
And made it stand
Screaming out loud
Get your feet on the ground
She said "drop dead"
Stuck in the clouds
That hang around her head

Oh will someone light a candle for me?
Leading to my morning glory

Sunday morning I arrive
Through the dark and night's disguise
Sunday morning
Baby, I'm your alibi
Sunday morning I arrive
Through the dark and night's disguise
Sunday morning
Baby, I'm your alibi

Give and take
And get what you give
The mistake it's easy to die for you
Baby, it's harder to live
Windows down
They keep me awake

Oh, man, will someone light a candle for me?
Driving to my morning glory

Sunday morning I arrive
Through the dark and night's disguise
Sunday morning
Baby, I'm your alibi
Sunday morning I arrive
Through the dark and night's disguise

Sunday morning
Baby, I'm your alibi

I know it don't make sense
Except that this is over
It makes no difference
Except that this is over
Oh yeah

Oh yeah

Conversations with my coffee and cigarettes
She's as far from me as heaven
But it's worth it in the end
I wouldn't be here if it wasn't worth fighting for

And for every mile marker on this interstate
There's a reason I'm still here
And while she still waits

So someone light a candle for every reason she's my morning glory

Sunday morning I arrive
Through the dark and night's disguise
Sunday morning
Baby, I'm your alibi
Sunday morning I arrive
Through the dark and night's disguise
Sunday morning
Baby, I'm your alibi

Yeah, singing yeah
It don't make sense, at all
But I'll drive around all night
Oh yeah
I'm singing yeah
It don't make sense, at all
But I'm driving all night
All night
