

If I Break

Red

Feels like I'm the only one, scared
Nowhere to run
Lost inside myself without you
I try to hide inside the pain
Now I watch myself, fade away

And if I break
If I fall
Will you still run to me when I call?
If I close my eyes
And I can't find my way to you
Will you stay?
If I break
If I break

I know that I could never see all you are to me
I can't see myself, only you
I tried to hide but I can't escape
Now I watch it all, fade away

And if I break
If I fall
Will you still run to me when I call?
If I close my eyes
And I can't find my way to you
Will you stay?
If I break

And if I break
And if I break

Will you stay until the end?
Will you never walk away?

And if I break
And if I fall
Will you still run to me when I call?
And if I close my eyes
And I can't find my way to you
And Everything
Everything changed
Will you stay?
If I break
If I break
