

Still Bleeding

Red

I gave you everything
Descending underneath
Crying out
Will you save me?

Just below the surface
It's rising up
This pain I cannot hide
I know it's not enough

It's not enough

I'm running away from my heart
Just bringing me back to the start
I try to escape but I'm drowning
I keep dreaming that this won't last
We're both heading for a crash
Now I'm awake and still bleeding

I know it's just a dream
But it seems so real to me

Walls are closing in
This air is running thin
The clock is ticking now
Still reaching for a way out

'Cause I'm running away from my heart
Just bringing me back to the start
I try to escape but I'm drowning
I keep dreaming that this won't last
We're both heading for a crash
Now I'm awake and still bleeding

Is this just a dream?
Is this just a dream?
It seems so real to me

I'm still running away from my heart
Just bringing me back to the start
I try to escape but I'm drowning
I keep dreaming that this won't last
We're both heading for a crash
Now I'm awake and still bleeding
