

Your Devil Is A Ghost

Red

Take blood and light your fire
With every word you hear
Pass through a prism

Drain and scathe
Til I walk away
Destruction is

Here your devil is a ghost
A shadow from long ago
Still preying on the memory
Your devil is a ghost
A shadow from long ago
Still preying on the memory

Your victim spirit
Your suspicious mind
Won't let you hide it all

Drain and scathe
Til I run away
Salvation is

Here your devil is a ghost
A shadow from long ago
Still preying on the memory
Your devil is a ghost
A shadow from long ago
Still preying on the memory
