

Fate

Redbone

Yes, the river will flow and down to the ocean it goes
Up in the sky is a bird, higher and higher he can fly
Rome was a beautiful world, it crumbled and fell
Evil and hate cannot split the goodness we win
Don't you know that it's fate, fate, fate

Man goes crazy for gold yeah, when he gets power he's old
Rain comes behind with the snow yeah, when the sun hits the cold
Ice lived and died for our sin, God bullied it so
Pain on the street of your life, it comes and it goes
Don't you know that it's fate, fate, fate

Yes, a young baby will cry, does he know something we don't Love will be stronger than man yeah, try and hold on if you can
There was a king for a day, the fear in me sings yeah
How is the mystery solved, through heaven we know
Don't you know fate, fate, fate
