

Funky Silk

Redbone

Touch, feel, see, hear
I know

There was something on my mind
I had to say
But in all the confusion
It just slipped away
What the hell, words come easy to forget
It's not always what you say
But how you feel

Touch, feel, see, hear
I know
It's not always what you say
But how you feel

It's not always what you say
But how you feel
Words somehow never mean to say
How I really feel inside by the way
It's not always what you say
But how you feel
How's your feel right
