

(I Can't) Handle It

Redbone

Baby, baby, baby, baby
I ain't goin' far no good
So get drunk, end up choke

Ah baby, baby, baby, baby
You been wrong as a wind in two left shoes
That's bad news that I can't use

And if you try to do me under
I'll cut loose with fire and thunder
Baby, 'cause I can't handle it

You got what you wanted, but you lost what you had
And now, I can't handle it
Ah, you won't boo-ga-boo

Baby, baby, baby, baby
You been causing friction on the sly
You stay high, don't know why

Baby, baby, baby, baby
You been takin' when you giving none
Have your fun, then you're done

If you'd come down from your tower
Baby, I'd be in your power
Baby, 'cause I can't handle it

You got what you wanted but you lost what you had
And now I can't handle it
Ah, you won't boo-ga-boo

Baby, baby, baby, baby
You been takin' when you giving none
Have your fun, then you're done

Baby, baby, baby, baby, baby
You been wrong as a wind in two left shoes
That's bad news that I can't use

If you try to do me under
I'll cut loose with fire and thunder
Baby, 'cause I can't handle it

You got what you wanted but you lost what you had
And now, I can't handle it
Ah, you won't boo-ga-boo
