I've Got To Find The Right Woman

Redbone

Sometimes when I'm all alone
I feel like crying so bad
I miss you so, and this I know
I'm insane, I'm in pain, I'm uptight, I'm not right
Oh

I've got to find the right woman
That individual made just for me
I've got to find the right woman
Oh irresistible force come to me
I'm gonna love you

Sometimes when I think about the past
It makes my head go round
Whatcha say, whatcha know, whatcha name, whatcha game
This I go through everyday now
A wrong time, a wrong kind, a wrong mind, a wrong sign
Oh

I've got to find the right woman
That individual made just for me
I've got to find the right woman
Oh irresistible force come to me
I'm gonna love you

Sometimes when I hittin' on to you I
Feel like blowing my
Bang bang, shoot 'em up
Bang bang, get 'em up
Anyway that's the way I feel about it
Take em' up, lay em' out
Move 'em in, move em' out

I've got to find the right woman
That individual made just for me
I've got to find the right woman
Oh irresistible force come to me
I'm gonna love you

I've got, got, got, got, got ,got, got
(I've got to find the right woman)
I've got, got, got, got, got ,got, got
(That individual made just for me)
I've got, got, got, got, got ,got, got
I've got, got, got, got, got ,got, got

I've got to find the right woman
That individual made just for me
I've got to find the right woman
Oh irresistible force come to me
I'm gonna love you
