

Judgement Day

Redbone

Hark, people get ready (get ready)
'Cause the road that you walk is wrong
Look where we are heading (get ready)
All the love that you had is dead

Oh, you talk about your neighbor
Oh, and you laugh at how he labors (in the sun)
You call your brother no-count
Oh, and you make his life taste bitter (shame on you)

You'll be judged on the judgement day
Judged on the judgement day

How much is your faith? (get ready)
Is it real or do you pretend?
Heartbreak at your hands (get ready)
Do you feel, has your heart turned cold?

Oh, you planned your affliction
Oh, and you bring it like it's fiction (what the hell)
You walk on dreams of manna
But you still make yourself grow fatter (dog eat dog)

You'll be judged on the judgement day
Judged on the judgement day

Hark, people get ready (get ready)
'Cause the road that you walk is wrong
Look where we are heading (get ready)
All the love that you had is dead

Oh, you talk about your neighbor
Oh, and you laugh at how he labors (in the sun)
You call your brother no-count
