

Liquid Truth

Redbone

Many moons in history, when the world was red
Indian braves from [?] cleaned the spirit's head
Then the foreigner's footsteps echoed through the land
Wreathed in hollow promise, telling lie on lie

Guns will bring you power
Drink will cure your ills
Put your faith in Jesus
Give your soul to me

Take another look or face the liquid truth
Take another look or face the liquid truth
Take another look or face the liquid truth
Take another look or face the liquid truth

Scotch is nice (liquid truth)
Haul down twice (liquid truth)
Bourbon is (liquid truth)
Not an excuse (truth)

Now we learn the reason, see the liquid truth
Give me your tomorrow, you can have your now
Learn ye well, the lesson, learn from your mistakes
Look into your spirit, not into your jugs

Teachers to the children, live it well yourself
Have no whisky dinners, make your people proud

Take another look or face the liquid truth
Take another look or face the liquid truth
Take another look or face the liquid truth
Take another look or face the liquid truth

Scotch is nice (liquid truth)
Fall down twice (liquid truth)
Bourbon is (liquid truth)
Not an excuse (truth)
