

Moon When Four Eclipse

Redbone

Moon, when four eclipses come in with thunder
Singing through the wireless into your heart
Moon of destiny, your power is courage
To the lonely lost, you give hope and peace

Moon, when four come together
For the right to be heard as one voice
Ceremoniously existing
For that moment in time
When four eclipse

Moon, when spirits rise above you in wonder
Plotting out the sadness people cling to
Moon of happiness, we'll come in a heartbeat
Filling up your soul with everything good

Moon, when four stand before you
In the light of the truth we all fear
You're perpetually in motion
To a place in a dream
When four eclipse

Moon, when four eclipses come in with thunder
Singing through the wireless into your heart
Moon of destiny, your power is courage
To the lonely lost, you give hope and peace

Moon, when four come together
For the right to be heard as one voice
Ceremoniously existing
For that moment in time
When four eclipse
