

Ooh

Redbone

Ooh, I wanna see you
And let your eyes do the talking for your heart
Ooh, I wanna touch you
I wanna hold you and feel you deep inside
Ooh, I wanna know you
Like the sun knows the break in every cloud
I love you
That is why

I wanna know if you are in love with me
I wanna know if you are the only one for me
I wanna know if you are in love with me
Are you the girl
I am the boy

Ooh, I wanna kiss you
I need your lips to assure me all is right
Ooh, I wanna reach you
And pull you closer to me as days go by Ooh, I wanna freak you
And blow your mind with the things made of desire
I love you
That is why

Ooh, I wanna see you
And look within for the music of your soul
Ooh, I wanna love you
With all my might and my body and my mind
Ooh, I wanna wanna
I wanna give you that universal joy
I love you
That is why
