

Some City, Somewhere

Redferrin

I know that you ain't coming back round here
Some city, somewhere

Last I heard, the word was you was headed south
To your mama's house
Or maybe you made it from Memphis to Hollywood
Runnin' down a dream that you forgot about
Coulda been Florida, maybe Tybee, Georgia
North Carolina, coast of California
But there ain't no palm trees in Tennessee
And it don't look like you're missin' me

Some city, somewhere
On a beach with a flower in your hair
Some town, on the coast
Where you ain't gotta see my ghost no more
Hell no, you ain't lettin' us cross your mind
Hell no, you said you lettin' us go this time
I hope, for some reason, you change your mind
But I know that you ain't coming back round here
I know that you ain't coming back round here

Some city, somewhere

You left me with the memories
While you were floatin' the coast
With a boy you hardly know
On a run-down boat
Like you ain't missin' me
But when you're kissin' him
You're wonderin' who's kissin' me

Said you're done with me
But you can't call it quits
You used to run with me
But now you're on the fence
Said the trees and creek
Make ya' think about me
Yeah I guess that's why ya' had to leave
Ya' said you'd rather be

Some city, somewhere
On a beach with a flower in your hair
Some town, on the coast
Where you ain't gotta see my ghost no more
Hell no, you ain't lettin' us cross your mind
Hell no, you said you lettin' us go this time
I hope, for some reason, you change your mind
But I know that you ain't coming back round here
I know that you ain't coming back round here

I know that you ain't coming back round here
Some city, somewhere
