

Cure 4 Psycho

RedHook

I see that the face you're wearing is
Made of other people's skin
Now that I'm up close I see the cracks
Where you've been frankensteinin'

Such a comical situation
I ain't fakin' this elation
Since I had the realisation -
Vindication that I'm not crazy!

You're just a sadistic piece of shit
Somehow I just couldn't see

But then I looked it up...
Everything makes sense!
And now I know
There's no
There's no cure for psycho
Suddenly it seems
So damn easy just to let you go
There's no
There's no cure for psycho

Up there on your soapbox, so damn loud
Preaching about mental health
But the only time you give a fuck
Is when it affects yourself

You know ya couldn't find a kinder DEVIL
Gaslighter - expert level

Strike another match you might become
Architect of your own hell

Hell yeah I looked it up...
Everything makes sense!
And now I know
There's no
There's no cure for psycho
Suddenly it seems
So damn easy just to let you go
There's no
There's no cure for psycho

You tried to cut me down...
Tell me I was alone...
Felt like a prisoner trapped inside my own home...
You tried to kill me dead...
But I won't feed your ego...
Sidney Prescott, bitch
I'm in this for the sequel!

There's no cure for psycho...

Bet you're mad I made it out alive
Fended off your fatal blow
I'd tell you to get some help, but well

There's no cure for psycho

Hell yeah I looked it up...

Everything makes sense

And now I know

There's no

There's no cure for psycho

Suddenly it seems

So damn easy just to let you go

There's no

There's no cure for psycho
