

Dead Walk

RedHook

Confession, I stooped low
And thought they'd never know
Just what I did
And so I buried it
I buried it
Got by
Killed what I thought would die
Don't got no alibi
I buried it
I fucking buried it

And now all of my tales
Have damned me to this jail
I hit the final nail
I buried it (I buried it)
But still dead things creep
And stalk me in my sleep
Think I'm about to freak
I buried it
I fucking buried it

Run away
Run for your life
Before the monster gets inside
(I can't believe my eyes)
Thought it was dead
And gone
But I was so wrong
'Cause it had been so long
I never thought I'd live to see the dead walk

See the dead walk
See the dead walk
See the dead walk

The skeletons that wrote
This twisted horror show
They're coming from below to bury me (To bury me)
So hush, don't make a sound
There's terrors all around
They crawled out of the ground to bury me
To fucking bury me

Run away
Run for your life
Before the monster gets inside
(I can't believe my eyes)
Thought it was dead
And gone
But I was so wrong
'Cause it had been so long
I never thought I'd live to see the dead walk

Doctor
Do you know what's been eating me alive
Like a necrotizing parasite?
Like a lie

It burns and crawls beneath your skin
They say that in turn you turn in to What you've always been

Run away
Run for your life
Before the monster gets inside
(I can't believe my eyes)
Thought it was dead
And gone
But I was so wrong
'Cause it had been so long
I never thought I'd live to see the dead walk
Run away
Run for your life
Before the monster gets inside
(I can't believe my eyes)
Thought it was dead
And gone
But I was so wrong
'Cause it had been so long
And life went on
Thought it was done
I was so wrong
The secret's out
I never thought I'd live to see the dead walk
