

Hurt Like Hell

RedHook

Think I've got a migraine
From the feelings beatin' down the door of my brain
And I'm cashin' cheques with time I've spent in Déjà, déjà vu dollar bills
Hey ya (hey ya)

It's like I'm having flashbacks
Yeah, anxiety is out to give me whiplash
And I'm feelin' a little motion sickness
Goddamn, goddamn
Is it this again?
Goddamn, goddamn

Here we go again now
Heading for the end now
Better phone a friend now
Tripping out, I can't help thinking
Titanic is sinking
Standing on the brink and
Can't hit escape
I'm loathing this, I've been here before
Closing in like a thunderstorm cell
And this is gonna hurt like
Hurt like hell

Been tryin' a catch the curve ball
But I think somebody gouged out both my eyeballs
'Cause the future's getting harder to see
Swing fast, swing fast
Batter batter, yeah
Swing fast, swing fast

Yeah I'm still havin' flashbacks
This anxiety is out to gimme a panic attack
And I'm throwing up on the carousel, like
"Goddamn, goddamn
Round and round we go"
Goddamn, goddamn

Here we go again now
Heading for the end now
Better phone a friend now
Tripping out, I can't help thinking
Titanic is sinking
Standing on the brink and
Can't hit escape
I'm loathing this, I've been here before
Closing in like a thunderstorm cell
And this is gonna hurt like
Hurt like hell

Here we go again now
Titanic is sinking

Can't hit escape
