Imposter

Never believed in lizard people
'Til I discovered your scales
Reptilian eyes
Cold-blooded venom
Got sick chasing your tales

(You said)
"Hearts change like the weather... (and now it's raining on you)"
Hearts change like the weather... (we used to freak but now you)

Freak me out
I can't help but think you must be an imposter
Inside out
Crawling in the dark tryna figure it out...
'Cause it feels like you died
How the hell are you not a ghost?
You freak me out
I can't help but think you must be an imposter

Started believing you would have to be from another world
Now everyday feels like a twisted dream
Kinda like the human I once knew...

I guess hearts change like the weather
(Can't change your heart if you never had one from the start)
Hearts change like the weather...
We used to freak but now you

Freak me out
I can't help but think you must be an imposter
Inside out
Crawling in the dark tryna figure it out
'Cause it feels like you died
How the hell are you not a ghost? (you not a ghost)
You freak me out (freak me out)
I can't help but think you must be an imposter

I swear I knew you
Not this new you
What happened to you
Please... theorise?
Who's this stranger in familiar skin
That I don't... recognise?
Must be an imposter
Impossible as it might seem
Or you'd remember me...
The one you said meant everything

Freak me out
I can't help but think you must be an imposter
Inside out
Crawling in the dark tryna figure it out
'Cause it feels like (feels like) you died (you died)
How the hell are you not a ghost? (you not a ghost)
You freak me out

I can't help but think you must be an imposter

(Imposter)
I can't help but think you must be an imposter
(Imposter)
I can't help but think you must be an (imposter)
