

Fell into a hole
Hit the bottom like a stone
Heavy, I should know
I've got one all of my own

Doesn't mean I know what it feels like
Wish I knew how to help you heal, like
Strange how we all suffer together
Thinking we all suffer alone

And I'm terrified
Just don't know what to say
To convince you to stay
Not like I can't relate
But I'm tripping on words for it
Inarticulate

Lost a friend back when I was healing
Didn't know he had that same feeling
It's strange how we all suffer together
Thinking we all suffer alone

If only I had known all the answers
Took my friend like an aggressive cancer
It's strange how we're all dying together
Thinking we're dying alone

And I'm terrified
Just don't know what to say
To convince you to stay
Not like I can't relate
But I'm capped at the knees
'Cause this evil disease
Won't let any damn thing ever penetrate
Like my tongue's twisted inside a vice
Reaching for you in the quicksand
But I'm tripping on words for it
Inarticulate

And I'm terrified, I just don't know what to say to convince you to stay
It's strange how we all suffer together
Thinking we all suffer alone

Fell into a hole
Hit the bottom like a stone
Heavy, I should know
I've got one all of my own

And I'm terrified
Just don't know what to say
To convince you to stay
Not like I can't relate
But I'm capped at the knees
'Cause this evil disease
Won't let any damn thing ever penetrate
Like my tongue's twisted inside a vice
Reaching for you in the quicksand

But I'm tripping on words for it
Inarticulate

Still tripping on words for it
Inarticulate
