

Party/Zombie

RedHook

Wing-tip doll eyes
Smile like cyanide
You'd never gather she'd gone dead inside
Surrounded, social
Feeling so alone
So animated in those empty bones
Nobody's home

Fire went out
Someone along the way
They killed the glow
But now if this is the apocalypse
No one would ever know
'Cause you don't ever let it show

Tonight I'm gonna dance like the whole world isn't even ending
Look around and laugh like it's alright
Not even pretending
Not even pretending
This dead lump of meat in my chest can still beat
And I'm not just a corpse of the person I used to be
Hi!
I'm the life of the party zombie
The life of the party zombie

You're decomposing
Doing what it takes
To shine so bright for them while everything inside breaks

So keep ignoring the pain that guts you like a knife
If you just fake it
Maybe it'll bring you back to life?

Tonight I'm gonna dance like the whole world isn't even ending
Look around and laugh like it's alright
Not even pretending
Not even pretending
This dead lump of meat in my chest can still beat
And I'm not just a corpse of the person I used to be
Hi!
I'm the life of the party zombie
The life of the party

The fire went out
Someone along the way - they killed the glow
But now if this is the apocalypse
No one would ever know
'Cause you don't ever let it show

Tonight I'm gonna dance like the whole world isn't even ending
Look around and laugh like it's alright
Not even pretending
Not even pretending
