

Scream 2

RedHook

This is not a song
It's an insurance policy
In case the psycho there's no cure for
Comes back to finish me
I know you're seething
That I'm still breathing
Been plotting your vengeance
Since the minute that I stopped bleeding

No one plays the victim like a sociopath
Lost all of your power, now you're on the warpath

Hey killer, killer
Dying for a sequel
Heard you were plotting something lethal
Hey killer, killer
Dying for a sequel
Heard you were plotting something lethal

You know you tried, you tried
To get inside my head
Let you convince me I was better off dead (And it came so close)
Stole my story, sold it to your new friends
But they'll all see you for just what you are in the end

Hey killer, killer
Dying for a sequel
Heard you were plotting something lethal
You want a Scream 2 bloodbath to rain down on me
But you won't come back to repeat history
Hey killer
Not in my damn movie

And I fucking hate
I let you support me
The night that I met the, the jabberwocky
Using trauma like a weapon
Should be illegal, so suck on this sequel
You're pure evil

He killer, killer
Dying for a sequel
Heard you were plotting something lethal
He killer, killer
Dying for a sequel
Heard you were plotting something lethal
You want a Scream 2 bloodbath to rain down on me
But you won't come back to repeat history
Hey killer
Not in my damn movie
