

Tourist

RedHook

Just wanna crawl up in a ball
For the next twenty-four hours or more
Yeah, you hit me with with a marathon love bomb
Now I'm digging out the shrapnel
Those silver lies, they bled me dry
Now I'm taking myself back

You're just a tourist
I quit ya
You came into my life to take pictures
Bitch, you promised forever
Then jumped on the next ship
Hope you had a nice trip, trip
Hope you had a nice trip, trip
And now I'm waving Bon Voyage to all your bullshit

I never wanted to be tied down
But you made a sport of chasing me down
You played me like a violin
Some wicked thing in every good thing that you do
And I ate it up like cinnamon
Turns out I'm a fucking fool

You're just a tourist
I quit ya
You came into my life to take pictures
Bitch, you promised forever
Then jumped on the next ship
Hope you had a nice trip, trip
Hope you had a nice trip, trip
And now I'm waving Bon Voyage to all your bullshit

I'm trippin' as the mirror ball crashes down onto the floor
Perceptions shattered
And I see what you are
You played me like a violin
Some wicked thing in every good thing that you do
And I ate it up like cinnamon
Turns out I'm a fucking fool

You're just a tourist
I quit ya
You came into my life to take pictures
Bitch, you promised forever
Then jumped on the next ship
Hope you had a nice trip, trip
Hope you had a nice trip, trip
And now I'm waving Bon Voyage to all your bullshit

You're just a tourist
I quit ya
You came into my life to take pictures
Bitch, you promised forever
Then jumped on the next ship
Hope you had a nice trip, trip
Hope you had a nice trip, trip
And now I'm waving Bon Voyage to all your bullshit
