

I'm Just Like The Other Guys

Rediscover

This is a nightmare of make-up and bad hair
And good looks that could get her anywhere
She says she's not scared
Well I'll drive you there
Girl I'll drive you there
Turn up the radio
As loud as it goes
And I promise after the show
Well then I'll get you home
I'll get you home

She said that this will be the last night
I finally found the right guy
I said I don't know if that's right
I'm just like the other guys
She said that's alright,
That's alright, that's alright, that's alright, that's alright, that's Alrig ht, hat's alright, that's alright

I'm a bad dream of t-shirts and tight jeans
But good looks
And I'll, I'll be dancing
I'm who they warned you about
I'm the guy they told you not to ask out

Turn up the radio
As loud as it goes
It's gonna get hot in here
So let down with the windows
Let down with the windows

Turn up your radio
As loud as it will go

She said that this will be the last night
I finally found the right guy
I said I don't know if that's right
I'm just like the other guys
She said that's alright,
That's alright, that's alright, that's alright, that's alright, that's Alrig ht, that's alright, that's alright

She said if I open my legs
Would you open your heart tonight
If I open the door would you get me back home alive
And if you open your legs
I'd open my arms tonight
If I would open the door
I would get you back home on time

She said that this will be the last night
I finally found the right guy
I said I don't know if that's right
I'm just like the other guys
She said that's alright,
That's alright, that's alright, that's alright, that's alright, that's Alrig
ht, that's alright, that's alright

This will be the last night
I finally found the right guy
This will be the right now
I finally found the right guy
The right guy
The right guy
