

Cold Killer

Redlight King

I've been waging a deadly war, I've been left by the side for days
I've been burned by the flames before, people say that I've lost my way
I done passed through the gates of hell, it's a fiery road to pave
Past the point where you can tell, if there's something really left to save

Cold killer, blood on my hands
I'm a bad bad man, I'm a primetime thriller
Hard hitter, you don't understand
I'm a cold killer

Cold killer, blood on my hands
I'm a bad bad man, I'm a primetime thriller
Hard hitter, you don't understand
I'm a cold killer

I've been blind by the setting sun, I've been cursed by the ones afraid
I've been judged by the things I've done, criticized by the things I say
You can't stop me with walls of hurt, you can't hurt me with words of shame
No one can tell me what I'm worth, so be afraid when the say my name

Cold killer, blood on my hands
I'm a bad bad man, I'm a primetime thriller
Hard hitter, you don't understand
I'm a cold killer

Cold killer, blood on my hands
I'm a bad bad man, I'm a primetime thriller
Hard hitter, you don't understand
I'm a cold killer
