

Evil Lies

Redlight King

Bloodshot crypto cartel
Keep the whole stash to themselves
Stone cold straight to the well
Let 'em all bleed where they fell
See a man sinking and thinking he's winning
Movers keep shaking and faking the ending
And I'm saying
Black top snake bite hotel
Everybody's under the spell

Yeah, you know where to find me in the dead of the night
Where they try to sell you heaven or a devil to fight
And they take what they want and they call this a life
Evil lies, evil lies, evil lies

Gun shot guilty mistake
Flying down a hill with no brakes
Warpaint worn on the race
Everybody put in their place
Buying and bidding for virtual villains
Keeping it hidden let the poor do the killing
And I'm saying
Black hole twist in your fate
Everybody's under the hate

Yeah, you know where to find me in the dead of the night
Where they try to sell you heaven or a devil to fight
And they take what they want and they call this a life
Evil lies, evil lies, evil lies
Evil lies, evil lies, evil lies

Uhuu
And the wheels keep grinding
Down the road of doubt
Ahaa
And the truth is blinding
If ever you find out

Yeah

You know where to find me in the dead of the night
Where they try to sell you heaven or a devil to fight
And they take what they want and they call this a life
Evil lies, evil lies, evil lies
Evil lies, evil lies, evil lies
Evil lies, evil lies, evil lies
Evil lies, evil lies, evil lies

Yeah
Evil lies
