

Backseat

Redveil

Uh, yeah, yeah yeah nigga
Uh, yeah

Its everybody ducking death by they skin or they teeth
That's me included I shouldn't be gone off at 23
And I ain't even catch a breath until my lung couldn't breath
Niggas didn't catch the wave til' I was dead in the creek
With my limbs sinking, only time that these niggas weep
I ain't involved with em' now that's why solo I be
I learned early don't give energy to niggas who need it
Some compensation just to fuck with your dreams
That's why I stay covered up, in them hoodies it seems
Its a lot of scabs under the sleeve
But strip my garment its this comfort zone that I need to leave
You heard the saying can't nobody drive from the backseat
I'm kicking niggas out the front, getting in turn the key
My nigga why you tryna front already got the receipts
You wasn't round when I was blunt, now I'm up and you see
You only wanna fucking stunt, [?] for the green, just come clean

Niggas got my motherfucking seat bitch, but I want it back
Niggas got my motherfucking seat bitch, but I want it back
Bitches got my motherfucking seat bitch, but I want it back [?] This the time before all of the secrets, bitch I want I back kit back

Don't tell me my boyfriend just went like that Keep your hands where they are
Yes I back will sir, I'll keep my hands where they are As Officer Yanez continued to point his weapon at Castille, you can see an officer, coax and pick up Reynolds', then 4 year old daughter, who was in the backseat during the shooting Yanez was quickly suspended from the St. Anthony Minnesota Police
Dept. and soon indicted for manslaughter
Friday the jury acquitted Yanez of all charges
Run it back, Run it back, Run it back, Run it back, Run it
