

Phew (Yeah), phew-phew (Yeah), yeah
Yeah, uh, yeah

I miss when I ain't have to wonder if this shit was real
I peeped the code was non-existent, watched these niggas squeal
I'm sick of holding my tongue for y'all fucking feelings
Don't need the toxic, I just want me something I can feel, you feel? (Yeah)

It's like it's my thoughts still trapped up in my head (Uh, yeah)

A lone wolf on this trail, it's redveil, I maneuver through the fake to the bread

Fake nigga flesh gon' fill up with lead

I get the check, then I don't spend it, I just flip it instead, my nigga (Yeah)

I got a lot of steps to take, for now I'm tryna breathe (Uh)

Good girl, she won't complain if she taste my seed (Nah)

No, these niggas not my bleed (No), it's 50/50 with you niggas

Peep the grass, these shitty blades that I'm tryna weed

Uh, shitty blade of grass, yeah

I stomp it out and then I get the cash, nigga

Then I get the cash, nigga, yeah (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, uh)

I stomp it out and then I get the cash, nigga

Starry nights like these got me lookin' at the Moon

Thinkin' 'bout how when I left, I said I'd come home soon

And now I'm home and I just hate it, I wonder if it's fated

I was only born to fade in, what's the cost of what you makin'?

No stress, two breath, one step, what do you regret?

Tell me how you feel, you don't look upset

What did you forget, me? Shit, well I forget a ton

And the past a couple, so I tossed it all so I could run late (Fuck)

That was dumb (Shit), be back inside by sundown

Got a couple fans of me, but still ain't got no funds now

Don't play this when you high, only play this on the comedown

Lost my elevation chasin' fame, what do what I want now?

I rap about myself too much, feel like I'm so conceited

My broken body on the pavement, we still undefeated

You know the way it goes, you know the way it gotta be

Keep roses in my toes and some pain inside my heart, it seems

No matter where we go, I end up right back where I oughta be (W here I oughta be)

Life a odyssey, baby, you oughta see it (Hahaha)
