

It's been a minute since I stumbled out my grave, nigga
Caught me in the concrete, put my name in the pavement
Walking back and forth but I never travel to save my life
I'm pacing and my brain panicking, need a face-lift
Or a fuck to give
I'm in the guts like appendix you niggas new to this, my rap sh it lucrative
I'm haphazardly duckin rats I feel like a fugitive
She thinkin that I'm a baby, that shit is ludicrous
Hvmor be the label all you other niggas humorous
And I been setting waves since I slid outside of that uterus
That was April 20 but now it's time to get used to this
The boy killing shit like he cyanide from a lunatic
Metabolism fast so I'm eatin, but I ain't flexin' it
But when the money counter keep going, that shit is deafening
And I'm wiping the game like I went to reselling [?]
My nigga it's the reckoning
Yeah

I've been a menace since I crawled up out that crib
They told me I'm a phony, I'm a faggot, I'm a bitch
But honestly I'm better than like all of them kids
And if they really wanna test me I'll be leaving them stitched
Stuck in my head with these voices, always screaming at me
I keep my head above the water and my shoes on my feet
I've been gone for like a week and I still ain't got calls
So why the fuck you gettin weird when I say so long
These stupid rappers are actors, always cap in their songs
But when I'm spittin real shit they say I'm doin it wrong
That's the problem with these kids they all thinkin they gods
But when it comes to really proving it they takin a loss
They think they the boss, they gettin lost in the sauce
But they ain't gucci, they be Zumiez and they ripping you off
I mean shit, you ain't need that 85 dollar t-shirt
You worshiping a brand, don't your skinny jean knees hurt?
I'll pop you motherfuckers like a front side reaver
And cut up your bloodline like mothafuckin leaver
I'm really bout my business, and you really don't get it
If you call me shit but Willie then you really gon regret it
You mad and pretentious, you all in my mentions
You come for my throne, bitch, you know I'll defend it
