

New ray gun (Pew), got the paint on
Can't no one (Hm), saddle me, bruh
Run it up (Hm), watch it rerun
Can't no one say they put me on
New ray gun (Pew), got the paint on
Can't no one, saddle me, bruh
Run it up, watch it rerun
Can't no one say they put me on

They put me on
I pick the heat up off the seat, no semblance of safety, the be am on
Watch my trigger finger put your dream on, yeah
Every empty piece of me gon' evaporate when that screen on But when the screen off, that's remindin' me that this time is precious
I'm tryna catch up, no time but relay the message
I'm tryna go back and hear that lesson my ancestry done tried t o tell
Their words stuck on deaf ears, I wish I knew they man well
I wish that I knew myself, I wish I knew what I wanted
Resultin' from this momentum, this infrastructure from Hell
I skip a couple steps, learn how to nap and get all this wealth
But I ain't felt the need to keep it, I just want the wellbein'
Now my creed no longer feat, now that ain't that much to ask
In sixty seconds, seen a couple years past
I gotta buffer all of this muscle tension under my mask
But it's keepin' shit to run back to, I know I'm duckin' the fl ask
All I need is the

New ray gun (Pew), got the paint on
Can't no one (Hm), saddle me, bruh
Run it up (Hm), watch it rerun
Can't no one say they put me on
New ray gun (Pew), got the paint on
Can't no one, saddle me, bruh
Run it up, watch it rerun
Can't no one say they put me on

They put me on, can't nobody say it, yeah
They put me on, can't nobody say it, no (No, no, no)
They put me on, can't nobody, yeah, yeah, uh
Can't nobody, yeah
Yeah, uh, need a new ray gun, nigga
Uh, nigga, I need a new ray gun, nigga
