

Run It Back

Redveil

Run it back
Run it back
Run it back
Run it back
Run it back
Run it back
Run it back
Run it back
Run it back
Run it back
Run it back
Run it back
Run it back
Run it back
Run it back
Run it back
Run it back
Run it back

I know, that I have made mistakes that I can't just let go
These demons in my brain bounce around like echoes
They remind me of the pain and it's hard to let go, oh
I've come close to clearing everything but the past, it won't change
I'm breaking all these chains but the guilt, it still remains
If I have one more chance I'll be picking up this slack

I wish I could
Run it back
Yeah, nigga, run it back
[?] so that shit a hundred racks
Uh, yeah nigga, run it back
It snuck up, took everything I had
Got stuck up, took that shit without a [?]
I fucked up, shawty, come and run it back
Come and run it back, yeah
Come and run it back, yeah
Come and run it back, uh

I fucked up and run it back, What's a red flag?
To those youngs that keep on coming back
I've been wasting so much time, I can never get it back
I've been wasting so much time, I can never get it back
Toxic habits, I relapse
I don't ever fucking learn
Nigga, I'll reach out when I'm back
But they never really earned it
Lifeline give me fake love when it slow down
Deathbed, niggas might not ever have to cope now (Yeah)

Help me
'Cause all this stressin' is too unhealthy
It's distracting me from getting wealthy
No, I think I fell into a dark zone
And all my demons wanting me alone
They keep on knocking but I'm at home (At home)
Now I'm at peace but that won't last for long
While I cope with where I'm at
I'll be picking up this slack

Oh, if I could run it back
[?] so that shit a hundred racks
Yeah, yeah
Come and run it back
