

more like you

Reed Deming

I've been tired of my same old self
I've been drinking from an empty well
My habits are stuck on repeat
My pride messes up everything
I've been looking in a broken mirror
But I finally see it all so clear
That it's not who you made me to be
And it's time to give you all of me

That's why I'm singing change me
Break me and take me deeper
I'm over the thing I was
I wanna be more like you
I wanna be more like you
Show me how to make my sin weaker
So nothing stands between us
I wanna be more like you
I wanna be more like you
More

Perfection's not what you expect
That's what makes you different from the rest
You're not hanging on to my past
You know I'm so grateful for that
But I wanna look more like that cross
So I'm betting everything I got Till it's only your love that they see
Yeah, it's time to give you all of me

That's why I'm singing change me
Break me and take me deeper
I'm over the thing I was
I wanna be more like you
I wanna be more like you
Show me how to make my sin weaker
So nothing stands between us
I wanna be more like you
I wanna be more like you (yeah-yeah)
More (I wanna be)
More (I wanna be)
More, I wanna be more like you
Yeah, more like you

Not just when it's easy
Not just when they see me
Not just on a Sunday
Not just on my good days
God I want more, more
More of your forgiveness
Love with no conditions
More of your compassion
I just wanna have it
God I want more, more

Change me
Break me and take me deeper

I 'm over the thing I was
I wanna be more like you
So show me
How to make my sin weaker
I wanna be more like you
More (I wanna be)
More (I wanna be)
More, I wanna be more like you
Yeah, more like you
