

Everything Far Away

Reef

I was caught for stealing
I was caught for you
My love
I was strong believing
I was strong for you
My love
My love
My love
My love
My love

Just one look at you
It'll make me feel alright
Just one thought of you
It makes me feel alright
Alright
Alright
Alright
Alright

My world is still spinning now I have set sail
Oh, the judge didn't like me, he put me in jail
Just one look is all it took
Then he cast me away when he threw me the book

Everything far away
Everything far away

I'm living in rags and I'm on foreign land
Oh, the men wear red coats and they all got a gun
Just one look that's all it takes
Before they hit you with sticks and it's your head that breaks

Everything far away
Everything far away
Everything far away, yeah

Everything far away
Everything far away
Everything far away
Everything far away
