

Strange Love

Reef

Good God, she's got it all
Oh man, she's six feet tall
And I'm shot down in flames
I am in love again
But then a shadow fell
Blackened my heart as well
And now I'm not so tough
She got me in a strange love

Strange love

A hot, erotic craze
She got my heart impaled
Still beating on a chain
Caught in a love earthquake
But there's a shadow there
Under her dark red hair
See man I'm not so tough
She got me in a strange love

Strange love
She's got me in a strange love
Strange love

You'd best look over your shoulder
Oh good god have you seen her brother?
He's like a titan! He's got shovels for his hands
He got the shoulders of a bison more than any mortal man

Strange love
She's got me in a strange love
Strange love

Oh, you should have seen her
Heart of stone and six feet tall
If you ever meet her
You would wish you had not met at all
The thing is that she keeps you warm
It's so good to be in her care
Feels like I'm a stone age man
Who's in love with a woman who's got flames for her hair

Oh, you should have seen her
Heart of stone and six feet tall
If you ever meet her
You would wish you had not met at all
The thing is that she keeps you warm
It's so good to be in her care
Feel like I'm a stone age man
Who's in love with a goddess who's got flames for her hair

Imagine!
So hot
She got me
Uh, uh
She got me, oh
So hot, damn

She got me
That's right, uh
So hot
So hot
So hot, uh
Woo!

Come away from the fire
Oh, no, it's a strange love, uh, uh
Look out! Uh, she got me, oh
Oh yeah
Strange love
Strange love
Strange love
She got me
So hot
Ah, ah, ah
Uh-uh, uh, uh
