

Growing My Garden

Reese Lansangan

Everybody's out
Chasing for the world
It's called dreaming
While I'm sat here, singing
Alone, oh I don't wanna be leaving

I must've read it somewhere
That it's okay to close your eyes for a while
Someday, I'd like to get there
But I'm just sitting it out for a while

Let me take time
It's all that I've wanted
Let me sleep silently
Uninterrupted
Let me just tend
To my growing garden
I'm opening doors
I'm letting the sun in

Let me take time
That I need to grow
Let me survive on
Breathing alone
Let me lay down
My plans one by one
And I'll wake up the world when I'm done
And I'll wake up the world when I'm done
