

Thanks But No Thanks

Reese Lansangan

Hey, I don't care how you're doing
I thought I left you behind
I brushed you off of my shoulders
Swept you out of my mind
Thought I should help you remember
You were the one who said no
Thank god, you did me a favor
Better watch my back as I go

And I'm never gonna understand
How players get all the glory
Talking their way out of everything
They don't know anything, no
But I'm gonna tell you now

I really hate to see you on your knees
I see right through you, still the same old sleaze
Baby, baby please
Got better things to do, eh
Don't care about you
Anymore, anyway (hey)

Yo I don't care who you're doing
I'm so done trying to comprehend
How you could be so casual
Exchanging girls over the weekend
I'm doing fine, thanks for asking
But I don't need your concern
You've given me enough, now I know
It's getting really tough to love
But now I am trying to learn

And I am never gonna understand
Why you just can't say you're sorry
Talking your way out of everything
I don't owe you anything, no
But I'm gonna tell you now

I really hate to see you on your knees
I see right through you, still the same old sleaze
Baby, baby please
Got better things to do, eh
Don't care about you
Anymore, anyway (hey)

I really hate to see you on your knees
I see right through you, still the same old sleaze
Baby, baby please
Got better things to do, eh
Don't care about you
Anymore, anyway (hey)

You ain't all that
You ain't that at all
You ain't all that
You ain't that at all
You ain't all that

You ain't that at all
You ain't all that
You ain't that at all
You ain't all that
You ain't that at all
You ain't all that
You ain't that at all
You ain't all that
You ain't that at all
You ain't all that
You ain't that at all
No, you ain't all that
You ain't that at all
No, you ain't all that
You ain't that at all

Hey!
