Death Doesn't Kill

Reflexion

Then so near, now so far,
Unhappy ending and another start
Away from light towards the dark,
Until life do us apart.

Too lost to hide, too sad to cry,
Led by the whisper of the night.
Scream in pain!
In follows me, bloodred rain!
It covers my heart.

I live to hate and hate to live,
Sadness is all I can give,
It’s calling me, it's calling you
Death doesn’t kill you, life does,
You can run, but never hide,
It’s calling me, chains of misery.
