

And Next with Feeling

Reggie and the Full Effect

You say all deprived a hat in your hand,
I guess it proves you understand.
What I realize I've left and you're bored,
I wanna hold you close as I can.

Pass me anything,
I don't want to feel a thing.
I want you to be wanted, I want to see you home.
I wanted you to always stay and not be alone.

It's your time you never want more,
It was blood-soaked and sane.
So I'm running for the answers, could ya just tell me so.
I won't come back again.

Pass me anything,
I don't want to feel a thing.
I've been feeling broken and I feel like I could go
Here at any moment. I'm telling you so
Move me in the stream.
I just want to close and dream.
Know that you were wanted. I wish you were still home,
I wish you could have always stayed and not be alone.

Pass me anything,
I don't want to feel a thing.
I want you to be wanted, I want to see you home.
I wanted you to always stay and not be alone.
Pass me anything,
I don't want to feel a thing.
Know that you were wanted. I wish you were still home,
I wish you could have always stayed and not be alone.
