

The Horrible Year

Reggie and the Full Effect

Darling tell me, have you seen the lights?
Tonight, they look at me
I'm over overestimated
I'm so glad you finally made it
It's my problem, it's my problem
I just need some time to solve them
You're outside, it's getting colder
I'm inside, I'm getting older

Baby tell me what's on your mind, what's really going on
I'll always follow here behind

Your sever is a first step
I'm around, I won't soon forget
Nobody knows we're down
I'm watching heads keep turning around
It's not sorrow, it's not sorrow
If I leave, I'm back tomorrow
Moving at a rapid pace
It's worth it just to leave this place

Baby tell me what's on your mind, what's really going on
I'll always follow here behind
Tell me it's about a lot of things that might be going on I'm home tomorrow, look behind

Can't get much worse babe
Can't get much done
I hope you know I'm having fun

Tell me again about the first time we met
When I told you my name and I thought you'd forget
And then we met up out again at a bar
And we drank and we drank and we got in a car
We got to my room and I'd soon have to go
'Cause I'm out on tour and tomorrow's a show
And I laid on the bed, a remote in my back
And I remember I said fucking holy shit
This girl looks awesome in black

Heart beating fast as we started to kiss
And we said how we both never do things like this
It felt intense as we got to the floor
I can't breathe, I can't breathe, I can't breathe anymore
I know that we both had a horrible year
And it's left us in doubt and it's left us in fear
I just wanted to tell you while I've got your ear
That I'll always be, always be, always be here
