

Hero

Regina Spektor

He never ever saw it coming at all
He never ever saw it coming at all
He never ever saw it coming at all

It's all right, it's all right, it's all right, it's all right
It's all right, it's all right, it's all right

Hey, open wide, here comes original sin
Hey, open wide, here comes original sin
Hey, open wide, here comes original sin

It's all right, it's all right, it's all right
It's all right, it's all right, it's all right

No one's got it all
No one's got it all
No one's got it all

Power to the people
We don't want it
We want pleasure
And the TVs try to rape us
And I guess that they're succeeding
Now we're going to these meetings
But we're not doing any meeting
And we're trying to be faithful
But we're cheating, cheating, cheating

Hey, open wide, here comes original sin
Hey, open wide, here comes original sin
Hey, open wide, here comes original sin

It's all right, it's all right, it's all right
It's all right, it's all right, it's all right

No one's got it all
No one's got it all
No one's got it all

Power to the people
We don't want it
We want pleasure
And the TVs try to rape us
And I guess that they're succeeding
And we're going to these meetings
But we're not doing any meeting
And we're trying to be faithful
But we're cheating, cheating, cheating

I'm the hero of the story
Don't need to be saved
I'm the hero of the story
Don't need to be saved
I'm the hero of the story
Don't need to be saved

I'm the hero of the story
Don't need to be saved

It's all right, it's all right, it's all right
It's all right, it's all right, it's all right
It's all right, it's all right, it's all right

No one's got it all
No one's got it all
No one's got it all
