Come on what the fuck is waiting up there for us, huh?
What the fuck's waiting for us?

He's gonna shoot him

Tell me or I'm gonna put two in your face right here

He didn't do it

He's not gonna shoot him

He's gonna shoot him

Like Nick Carter used to say if I'm wrong I swear to God I'll f ucking apologize

Alright something's a miss I can feel it. If anything out the o rdinary goes down

I swear to God you are gonna be the first one shot

Clarence he didn't anything what the fuck

Shut up alright I'm gonna blow this motherfucker away

Fuck you

I wish somebody would just come and get me because I don't like this anymore

Get a hold of yourself you fucking sissy

I wish that somebody would just come and take me away just take me away

Hang in there Elliot goddammit

I can't take this I'm sorry but I just can't and I know that if somebody would

Just come to rescue everything would be alright...
