

Three Way Dance

Rehasher

I lost my friend the other day
Since I haven't been the same
I wonder if I should even try
Cuz I don't wanna get left behind
Where are you now that I'm gone?
I made some new friends and I moved on
I wonder if I should even try
Should I give a fk, alright?

You should have never lied
I never lied to you
You should have thought this through
You should have never lied
I never lied to you
Now I know the truth

I miss you more now that you're gone
I sometimes wonder what went wrong
This could never happen again
Cuz in my heart you'll always be my friend
It's never been like this before
Turned your back and walked out the door
Now I realize that I care
And that I give a fk, alright?

You should have never lied
I never lied to you
You should have thought this through
You should have never lied
I never lied to you
Now I know the truth

Where did you go?
I need to know
Where did you go?
I want to know
